

Equality and Diversity Policy

1. Overview

Apprentice Team Ltd has established this policy in order to provide guidance on our key principles in relation to equality and diversity within the company, across the delivery of learning and with all clients, suppliers and any individual who encounters Apprentice Team Ltd.

Apprentice Team Ltd are committed to providing equal opportunities for all and believe that individuals have an equal right to work and learn in an environment where they are treated with respect and dignity, free from discrimination regardless of their protected characteristics.

Apprentice Team Ltd is committed to offering opportunities to all individuals based solely on competence and individual merit, and not on any irrelevant factor such as age, sex, sexual orientation, race, creed, colour, nationality, disability, background or social status.

All employees have a duty to promote and comply with the equality and diversity policy and single equality plan throughout the duration of their employment with the company to ensure compliance of legislation.

The designated contact for Equal Opportunities at ATL is – Jayne Robinson.

3. Internal & Learner Recruitment

3.1. Advertising

All jobs and opportunities will be advertised as widely as is reasonably practicable, to ensure that applicants come forward from a wide variety of back grounds and walks of life.

The company will not restrict the advertising of any job or position to any publication, place or medium which would exclude or disproportionately reduce applicants from any particular gender or age group, or from persons of a particular marital status.

No job or opportunity will be advertised in such a way, or with such requirements or prerequisites that it shall exclude or discourage applicants from any gender or age group, or from persons of a marital status.

3.2. Short-listing

When short listing applicants for interviews or opportunities, Apprentice Team Ltd will take into consideration only the applicant’s qualifications, experience and suitability for the role.

Names, ages, dates of birth and other irrelevant information should be obscured or removed from application forms prior to short-listing to avoid inadvertent or unintentional discrimination.

3.3. Interview

Interviewers will not ask questions which relate to any protected characteristic.

Interviewers will ask all applicants the same set of questions to ensure equal treatment as far as possible.

Where an applicant identifies themselves has having a disability, Apprentice Team Ltd will make all necessary adjustments to accommodate at the interview.

3.4. Selection

Clear and consistent selection criteria and scoring grids will be used.

Selection for employment will be based solely on merit and the ability of the individual to do the job.

4. Delivery of Learning

4.1. All employees within the organisation, whether in direct delivery of learning or otherwise will adhere to the policy when carrying out their job role and conduct out of business hours as a representative of the company.

4.2. Delivery personnel will continue to refresh equality and diversity knowledge through training provided by the company including short courses, induction, standardisation and team meetings and through directed or self-study.

4.3. All delivery personnel will continue to promote equality and diversity through learning sessions both in centre and within the workplace. Visit progress records must be completed each month by the individual tutor, documenting in the relevant sections the learning and embedding of this policy and library of resources.

4.4. Delivery personnel will continue to embed the British values throughout the duration of the learners’ programme and throughout communication with any individual in relation to the company.

4.5. Delivery personnel will always continue to set the exemplary standards and demonstrate absolute respect, fairness and support the company principles of embracing differences and ensuring all learners excel in their personal and professional development regardless of any of the protected characteristics.
